the protection order issued against him in Kanawha Family Court within 10 days and it was assigned to Carrie Webster. Doughty would have had to say it was OK for the judge to hear the case since her brother is the chief of police.

Carrie Webster ruled Thursday when Ballard issued the domestic violence order. The leave last year stems from an unrelated incident, which Webster said he was not at liberty to discuss.

Doughty was required to turn over his gun to the police department last year when he was placed on leave, said Webster. By

STEP BY STEP

One's junior year can be a hard one but an exciting one as well. This year is when many students decide what they want to do with the rest of their lives.

One's senior year is PROM!! Making prom a spectacular evening takes a lot of hard work and dedication on the parts of many.

Junior class officers were: Amy Prescock, President; Chris Math...

POTOMAC HIGHLANDS

African American · German · Scottish · Swiss

The Potomac Highlands region of West Virginia has a population of approximately 117,000, and encompasses eight counties: Mineral, Hampshire, Tucker, Grant, Hardy, Randolph, Pendleton, and Pocahontas. The larger communities in this region include Elkins in Randolph County and Keyser in Mineral County. Like much of West Virginia, mining industries attracted immigrants from at least 18 different countries into this part of the state in the late nineteenth century. Lumber camps were also important employers in the early history of this region and were responsible for creating diverse, though ephemeral, communities. At one time, for example, there was a vibrant Polish community in...

SOUPS.

NO. 1. SUMMER SOUP.

Take a neck of mutton, joint it, break the bones, and put it into your soup-pot, adding four quarts of water to every five pounds of mutton. Put the pot on the fire, and let it boil slowly four or five hours; then strain off the liquid and return it to the soup-pot, after carefully removing all the fat from the surface: then add to it three turnips pared and

CHAPTER XIV.

BREADS, FLOUR BISCUITS, AND FLOUR CAKES.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

As there is no single article of food upon which the health and comfort of a family so much depends as upon BREAD, so there is none that requires more attention and care in its preparation.

Sec. 3-401. General penalty.

Except as otherwise provided by law or this ordinance, a person convicted of a violation of this ordinance for which no specific penalty is prescribed, shall be punished by a fine as set forth in section 3-402. In addition to any penalty prescribed in these animal control provisions, the municipal court judge may award an additional penalty in the form of restitution for damages which may be caused as a result of any violation of these animal control provisions. Additionally, the municipal court judge shall in all cases order a defendant convicted of any violation of these animal control provisions to reimburse the humane society, veterinarian, animal clinic or hospital, or other animal care and treatment provider for all such reasonable expenses as may have been incurred by the humane society, veterinarian, animal clinic or hospital, or other animal care and treatment provider with respect to the animal at issue in the violation. Except as otherwise provided by law or ordinance, with respect to the violations of this Code that are

We ran over Franklin at the Homecoming game. The team looked great. "We'll make it to the playoffs," everyone said. Well, we almost made it. We only missed the playoffs by one-tenth of one per cent.

But we're still proud. Each player did his best and knew there was more to a season than making the playoffs. For example, at the Homecoming game the team suddenly fell behind 7-0. They showed pep, poise and determination as the Warriors came from an early deficit to win 29-7.

The Homecoming game seems to reflect upon the whole season. At times the team seemed down, as in the Greenbrier West game. The final quarter certainly summed up the season—the team "let themselves go," as they did most of the season.
